WEST LIBERTY, MORGAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY. THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1921.

WHOLE NUMBER 574.

HAS PERFORMED HIS DUTY

As the campaign draws to a close some of the men who are opposed to me are very busy in circulating reports concerning me and the manner in which I have performed my duties as an officer, and trying to make votes against me through false representations.

I want to call the attention to all of you who heard my opponent speak throughout the county to the fact that in no speech of Mr. Allen did he say that I had failed in my efforts to do my duty or had been remiss in the law enforcement.

And again I want to call your attention to the fact that none of my accusers have yet put their finger to a single instance where I have failed in my duty. It is easy to make the sweeping accusation against an officer that he has failed in his efforts, but when it comes to backing it up by proof it is another matter.

Now, are you, as honest voters, going to be deceived by general accusations that cannot be substantiated? Are you going to believe things that the records of the court prove to be false and malicious? No man circulates an untruth that does not have some unholy purpose behind his utterances.

Up to the very time that Mr. Allen filed as a candidate he was outspoken and ardent in his advocacy of my candidacy, and told me and my friends that he was for me. In Wolfe county Mr. Allen's brother was a candidate for County Attorney and my brother-in-law was a candidate for the same office. Mr. Allen insisted that I cause my brother-in-law to quit the race, and I endeavored to induce him to do so, but was not able to do so, and when it was found that I could not induce my brother-in-law to quit the race for County Attorney Mr. Allen promptly announced his candidacy against me. He had a right to be a candidate and no one would deny him that right but it looks a bit fishy to bring the accusation that it was because I had not done my duty, when the evident reason is that in my inability to cause my brother-in-law to quit for County Attorney caused the opposition to me. This is the real reason for my opposition.

And what should the Democrats hope should my opponent be nominated and elected? Mr. Allen has been and is my friend, and I have nothing to say of him that would reflect upon him. I don't want to campaign in that way. But does his record offer anything that would assure you of better law enforcement? He was elected County Attorney of Wolfe county at one time and resigned the office to his brother. I do not blame him for that. He had made some money in the oil business and as a man of wealth had to move to Winchester to be in the society of the rich and affluent—until his money was spent. But that was his business. If he did not want to serve out the term of office to which he was elected it was his affair as to where he lived while he was wealthy.

I wonder what the good citizens who composed the grand juries and the petit juries of the county think when the partisans of my opponent spread broadcast over the country that the courts have been a farce and no doing their duty? They were a part of the court and any reflection on the court and its officers is a reflection on their integrity. Look over the list of the grand juries that have acted for the past few years and see if they are men who would be parties to wrong doing. Every member of the grand and petit juries of the various terms of court since I have been Commonwealth's Attorney owe it to themselves to resent the accusation that they have no done their duty. For that is what my opponent's accusations against me amount to.

I have never had a doubt of my renomination. I have too much faith in the intelligence and integrity of the people to believe that a campaign of calumny and deceit can win. And when the ballots have been cast and counted I confidently believe that the good citizens of all the three counties will roll up such a majority for me that it will completely silence and shame those who have sought to injure me by a propaganda of falsehood and deceit.

I want to say here that I have never heard of Mr. Allen engaging in these accusations. He has never done so in his speeches. But some of his partisans have sought to injure me by the spread of reports that are false and break down of themselves without refutation.

Yours Respectfully,

FLOYD ARNETT.

GARDNER THE MAN

"Set Thou a Man Diligent in his Business? He Shall Stand Before Kings; He Shall not Stand Before Mean Men."

1. Not a Criminal Case has been appealed from Judge Gardner's Court to the higher court in five years.

2. In the preceding twelve years which he has served as a judge, less than 20 per cent of the cases appealed resulted in reversals. Judge Gardner's findings were sustained in more than four cases out of five.

3. Very few Civil Cases have been appealed during the last five years, from Judge Gardner's court.

4. Of the Civil Cases appealed, one from Wolfe county was reversed; none from Morgan county was reversed; and only two from Magoffin county were reversed. In all other cases appealed Judge Gardner has been sustained by the Court of Appeals.

5. When a Judge is believed to be biased or prejudiced, an affidavit to that effect may be filed and another Judge demanded. Such an affidavit has never been filed in Morgan or Wolfe counties during the long service of Judge Gardner in the present district, and only one was filed in the old district. That was in a contested election case which was tried by Judge Gardner and, on appeal, his findings were sustained by the Court of Appeals.

6. In seventeen years of service, Judge Gardner has missed but two terms of court,—once when a brother died, and once when a baby was born in his home.

During that time he has held twenty-five special terms of court for the convenience of his people. Nearly two special terms each year.

7. There is but one hold-over murder case at this time in the district, and that has been allowed to go over on motion of the Commonwealth.

The Criminal Docket is cleaned up at each term of court in each county.

8. On the Civil Docket there is not an undecided motion in the district, nor a single case that has been submitted for decision which has not been disposed of. The business of the Court is up.

9. The expense of maintaining court for the foregoing reasons is less in this district than in any mountain district in Kentucky.

10. The following are the list of Jury Commissioners appointed by Judge Gardner in Morgan county for the years indicated. They are believed to be representative men.

March Term 1917—C. A. Sample, Harlan McClain, C. H. Black.

March Term 1918—John D. Henry, Boon Allen, William Bailey.

March Term 1919—Franklin Benton, D. M. Rowland, D. M. Murphy.

March Term 1920—L. B. McClure, C. W. McKenzie, J. C. Bailey.

March Term 1921—M. F. Holbrook, W. H. Stacy, Rev. Harlan Murphy.

The foregoing outstanding facts are submitted from the record of Judge D. W. Gardner to the people who have honored him.

He has been diligent in business and stands before his Kings,—the people,—for judgement.

This record proves:

That D. W. Gardner KNOWS THE LAW. KNOWS HOW TO APPLY THE LAW. HAS BEEN UNBIASED IN APPLYING THE LAW.

The safety of the country is in the freedom, intelligence and courage of its courts.

"Seest thou a man diligent in his business?"

He shall stand before Kings.

He shall not stand before mean men."

—Proverbs 22-29.

D. W. Gardner has been a judge for sixteen years. He as born among us and knows our weakness and our strength. He has always stood for the best things in life and used his influence in court and out for a little higher standard each year. He has administered the law with the utmost fairness. He has been fearless where courage was admittedly required and has been equally brave where many have not realized the need of courage. His experience is wider than that of many in the district, and he gives of that experience to the service of our people not only on the bench but in every day affairs of our lives. He is absolutely honest and trustworthy, and no man need fear either a lack of fidelity or of ability in the court after he himself has passed away, so long as Judge Gardner presides over the distribution of his estate or is the protector of his babies. He has met the changed conditions of our country through the prohibition legislation with courage and poise, and what is possibly the most difficult section of the country to control, is developing a public sentiment which will make the application of the law easy and effective without harsh and destructive measures. It is much easier to send men to the penitentiary than it is to provide for their babies while they are in jail, or to protect their wives while they are deprived of their usual natural means of support.

His experience is an asset. A judgeship is not merely a job. We have raised up a man to serve us. We have trained him, taught him. We are now entitled to the best that there is in him in the way of public service during such times as we may need him. We are entering upon a new era. The railroads have penetrated the mountains; oil has been discovered; coal is being developed; new roads are being projected and our people are taking or new ways. Our land titles have been revealed to us as universally tangled; our methods of conducting public business now appears to be unsound; and no practices, like moonshining, which our people have looked upon at least tolerantly, are suddenly declared more criminal. There was never a time when we needed a man of experience, and character, and legal learning and judicial temperament, and good COMMON SENSE, as much as we do now and will for the next few years.

Any man may aspire to an office; but the way to attain it is to be genuinely fit for it. Judge Gardner is in every way fit.—Salyersville Independent.

A LETTER FROM A REPUBLICAN.

Elk Fork, Ky.,
July 21, 1921.

Editor Courier,
West Liberty, Ky.

Dear Sir:
As the primary is drawing near I want to speak a few words for print in your paper. It is to the interest of all voters to be considerate and be careful and select competent men to fill the offices—men who will do their duty according to law.

I want to say a few words to the voters in regard to Judge Gardner's race for Circuit Judge. All people who are informed know that Judge Gardner has discharged his official duties to the satisfaction of all fair minded men. I understand that there is a plan to defeat him with the Republican vote. Republicans, you can not be hoodwinked and caught in this trap. Vote for Judge Gardner.

Yours truly,
H. W. H.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

Frankfort, Ky.,
June 23, 1921.

My Dear Superintendent:

In the matter on examinations the law requires that applicants must be examined in the county of their residence or before the State Board in person. The practice of going into other counties for examination involves us in embarrassing difficulties and is in violation of the law. I wish you would advise all teacher applicants that they must take the examination in the county of their residence or before the State Board.

Very sincerely yours,
GEO. COLVIN,
State Superintendent

GETTING READY.

H. W. Carpenter and his associates are getting ready for All Candidates' Day at Highland Park. They have 200 pounds of dressed mutton contracted for, will have two too pound beehives, 40 gallons ice cream, 40 gallons burgoo, lemonade by the barrel, cocoa, cola, pop and everything. Everybody coming.

Ladies especially invited.

G. A. Sergeant, of Cranes, was in town Monday on business.

Uncle Ned Perry, of Pomp, an aged Confederate soldier, was in town Tuesday. Uncle Ned wants to get up a rifle shooting match. He can shoot without glasses and is a fine rifle shot.

M. M. Wells, of Licking River, was in town Monday on business and called at the Courier office.

J. M. Cottle's new dwelling on Water street is nearing completion and is an ornament to that part of the town.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Ellington left Wednesday for a short visit with his father, R. B. Ellington, at Pomp, before going to their new location at Bloomfield.

Ned Wells, who has been working for the Cumberland Pipe Line Co., with headquarters at Lexington, cut his knee with an axe a few days ago and has returned home to get well.

Holly Williams and Roy Hitchcock, of Mine Fork, were in town Monday on business.

DEHART.

Several persons attended the sheep roast at the mouth of Blackwater Saturday, and report a good time.

Mrs. Bettie visited her daughter, Mrs. Clolla Crouch of Zag, Saturday and Sunday.

Ollie Fannin has a severe boil on his arm.

Sam and Andy Parks, of Breathitt county, were in this section Friday and Saturday.

The new road starting from Greasy and intersecting with the road near the mouth of Panther's branch, is under way. About one third of the road is completed and is on a fine grade.

It seems that crops are severely damaged in this section for lack of rain, but will not complain but just trust Providence, which doth all things well.

J. A. HALE.

Mrs. D. R. Keeton and children returned this week from a visit with her parents at Salyersville.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. I saw after taking some Cardui that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me. My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere. E.83

THE NATIONS ARMING FOR WAR.

The building of war ships and war material, is being feverishly pursued by the leading nations of the world. There has been called a "conference" of the nations by President Harding to "discuss" disarming. Japan wants an agreement that the United States will not discriminate against her citizens, and there you are.

The fact that it is necessary to call the conference is the best evidence that the League of Nations was needed, and it is begging the question to seek an agreement that will leave any nation at liberty to break at any time it suits it.

Unless there is such binding agreements as were provided in the League covenant it will be worse than useless. The nations agreeing to disarmament must have some way to prevent the preparation for war or the agreement will be useless. The calling of the conference is an admission that we ought to have gone into the League.

PRINTING THE NEWS.

While it is the province of a newspaper to collect and print the local news of the community the readers of the paper can help in the matter by calling the newspaper office and informing them of such items as they may know. Frequently we have it said to us: "Mr. and Mrs. Blank, of Blank, visited us and you didn't have a word of it in the paper." As a matter of truth, we have been so very busy with the extra work incident to a campaign that we have not devoted the time we should to the gathering of local news. But sometimes, even when we are searching for news items, people who have visitors or who have been visiting, fail to inform us and we lose the item.

We will deem it a favor if our readers will call us up and tell us of any item they have. After the primary we will devote more space to local news, but during the campaign for office the paper has been crowded with political advertising and we have had to neglect the news feature of the paper. But as everybody is interested in the coming election our readers have made little complaint, for which we are very thankful.

ONE-REMEDY PHYSICIANS.

The average Republican political physician prescribes tariff for every economic ailment. If there is an alleged over production the Republican doctor prescribes tariff. If there is a shortage of production he also prescribes tariff. According to the Republicans code of politics there is nothing that tariff will not cure. From a slight attack of financial bellyache to national paralysis of business the Republican doctor prescribes tariff. The truth of the matter is that the Republican statesman know that Uncle Sam is very sick financially and don't know what to do, and as "tariff" has always been their bunk to win elections they are at their senseless game of tinkering with the tariff to hide their ignorance of what the county needs.

THE REASON.

One or two of our zealous friends have asked us why we did not oppose, in the columns of the paper, Floyd Arnett for Commonwealth's Attorney.

The reason is simple. We have made a ceaseless fight for law enforcement and have watched the efforts of Mr. Arnett, and we have never discovered anything to convince us that he was not doing his best to enforce the law. We know of the lack of co-operation, the thoroughness of the organization of the bootleggers and know how hard it is to produce the evidence, and to secure convictions. As a newspaper we have taken no sides in the races between the Democratic aspirants for office, have tried to treat all candidates for the nomination fairly and justly, and we cannot take up the fight in this instance, when, in fact, we have every reason to favor Mr. Arnett's candidacy. As an individual the editor of the Courier will vote for Mr. Arnett on account of personal friendship and further because he can do so with a clear conscience, believing that it will be for the better enforcement of law.

MARY'S TROUBLES!

Mary had a swarm of bees,
She loved their buzzing lives;
They, too, loved their Mary, 'cause
Their Mary had the hives.

Mary wore two silken socks,
Rolled down below her knees;
But Mary once had chicken pox,
Which spoiled the scenery.

Mary had a little laugh,
Which sounded like a giggle;
It followed her most everywhere,
And kept her at la-wiggle.

Mary has a little lamp,
She has it trained, no doubt;
For every time I call on her,
The little lamp goes out.

Mary had a little waist,
Where nature made it grow;
But every where the fashion went
The waist was sure to go.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, gives out the following statement:
"Another reduction has been made in the list price on all types of Ford cars and the Ford trucks to take effect immediately. The list prices, f. o. b. Detroit, are now as follows:

TOURING CAR	$415.00
RUNABOUT	370.00
COUPE	695.00
SEDAN	760.00
CHASSIS	345.00
TRUCK-CHASSIS	495.00
TRACTOR	625.00

"The big reductions last fall were made in anticipation of low material costs which we are now getting the benefit of, and this fact together with increased manufacturing efficiency and the unprecedented demand for Ford cars, particularly during the past three months permitting maximum production, have made another reduction possible immediately.

"Ford business for April and May 1921 was greater by 56,633 cars and trucks than for the same two months in 1920; in fact, the demand has been even greater than the supply, so that our output has been limited, not by unfilled orders but by manufacturing facilities.

"During May we produced 101,424 Ford cars and trucks for sale in the United States alone—the biggest month in the history of our company—and our factories and assembly plants are now working on a 4,000 car daily schedule for June.

"The Fordson tractor is still being sold at less than the cost to produce on account of the recent big price reductions, and it is impossible, therefore, to make any further cut in the price of the tractor."

Can you afford to go without a car any longer when Fords are selling at these new low prices? There is no reason now why you should delay purchasing a Ford car, Ford truck, or Fordson tractor.

We will gladly advise you concerning the delivery of a Fordson tractor or the particular type of car in which you are interested. Just phone us or drop us a card.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF THE THIRTY FOURTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator from this the 34th Senatorial District of Kentucky. I have been a practicing attorney for the past twenty-three years, and feel that I know what legislation would be beneficial to the people of not only this section of the state, but the whole state. Breathitt county has not had a candidate for this office for more than twenty-five years: I earnestly solicit the vote and influence of the Democratic men and women of this district.

E. C. HYDEN.

"Ouija! What's the good word?"

MY YOUNG sister,
HAS A Ouija board,
AND SHE believes it.
AND TALKS to Noah,
AND I think she talks,
TO HER best fellow,
WHO'S DEAD but doesn't know it,
AND I used to give her,
THE LOUD, rude laugh,
BUT I'M sorry now,
BECAUSE LAST night,
I WAS home alone,
SO I got the board,
AND PUT in a call,
FOR JOHN Barleycorn,
AND OTHER departed spirits,
BUT THE line was busy,
FOR NOTHING happened,
THEN I cheated a little,
AND IT spelled this,
"GRAMMASHOTTA SEVEN."

SO I shut off quick,
TO HEAD off any,
FURTHER FAMILY scandal,
THEN I stopped to smoke,
A CIGARETTE,
AND AFTER a while,
I CRANKED up weejee,
AND ALL of a sudden,
IT STARTED off,
AND QUICK as a flash,
IT SAID something,
"THEY SATISFY."

"SATISFY"—that's the good word. Just light up a Chesterfield and see what experts can do with fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos when they blend them in that can't-be-copied Chesterfield way. You'll say "they satisfy."

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?

The Courier hopes that the candidates for the various offices in the primary will continue the manner of their present campaigning. While many of these races have grown interesting there has been maintained a spirit of good feeling and good sportmanship amongst the candidates. There has been little, if any, mud slinging, and when the primary is over there will be few sores to heal. This is the proper spirit and we hope it will be maintained. The offices are in the hands of the people to give, and every candidate should be game enough to abide by the result of the people's verdict. Some have to lose and every candidate should prepare to cheerfully abide the result no matter what it may be. Such is the fortune of politics.

I WANT YOUR SUPPORT.

West Liberty, Ky.,
July 25, 1921.
To the Democrats of Morgan county:
I want to make an appeal to my friends to stand firm in the last days of this campaign, as I feel sanguine of success, and everything points to a big plurality for me over my opponents as the campaign draws to a close.

There have been some lies circulated, some to the effect that I would be off of the track, and others intended to injure my reputation. But I will not take time to refute these, as you know me and know the kind of life I have lived, and I feel sure that you appreciate these things and want an officer who will do things and not go over the county boasting of what he has done. If an officer does his duty the people will know it and if he does otherwise they will also know it.

I want you people to ask those who live near us which of us will run the best at home where we are known, and you will be convinced, for if a man cannot get the support of his neighbors who are with him daily and know him best, he is not entitled to the support of those who don't know him. Ask my immediate neighbors and ask the immediate neighbors of my opponents and see how you find it. My neighbors will tell you they are for me and will ask you to help me in the campaign.

I have stood true to the soldiers, working for them the bigger part of the time since I was discharged, and I ask you to go to the election early on the morning of the sixth of August and urge your friends to stand by me as I have stood by you.

If I should be defeated in this race there will not be much use of any other soldier running, as I have been the best friend the soldiers have had, helping them when they could not help themselves, so I beg you, one and all, to help me in the last days of the campaign. I assure you that I will run the race out and feel that I have it won. My election means not merely my success, but it demonstrates the unity of the ex-service men.

Yours very truly,
LYNN B. WELLS.

Vote for Chas. P. Henry for Judge

INSKO

Ora Atkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Van Atkins, was killed in the mines at Hazard, Monday, July 18th. He was struck in the head by a loose rock falling from the roof of the mine and died instantly. He was buried here in the family grave-yard, Wednesday, July 20th. He leaves a wife, two children, father, mother, one sister and one brother to mourn his loss. The entire community extend to this family their deepest sympathy in their hour of bereavement.

Miss Esther Arnett left Saturday for Salyersville to attend the County Teachers Institute this week. She will begin teaching in Magoffin county August 1st. We wish her a successful years work.

Mrs. Helen Alsept, of Stella, visited Mr. and Mrs. James McCarty last week. It seems as though the main part of her business was to speak a few good words to her relatives and friends here in the interest of Judge D. W. Gardner.

Miss Nancy Vest left Saturday for Weston, Mich., for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Garver. We wish her a pleasant visit.

Miss Noka Lacy entertained a large party of friends Sunday afternoon, each one reports a splendid time and will gladly accept the invitation to call at this home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams, of Caney, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williams Saturday and Sunday. Press Taulbee, of Salem, was a very pleasant visitor here Sunday.

"GWENDOLYN."

Be with the crowd and vote for T. J. Elam. He is the poor man's friend.

I. C. Ferguson, candidate for Sheriff, authorizes us to announce as deputies, Boon Howard, of Pleasant Run, and Clarence Nickell Stamper, of Salem. This announcement was given us after the side containing the announcements was printed and will appear in the regular announcement column next week.

Vote for T. J. Elam for Representative, he is a man that will look after your interest.

R. L. Smith, candidate for jailer, authorizes us to announce Tommy L. Salyer, of Caney, as his deputy. We received the letter too late to get it in the regular announcement column.

Vote for your interest and you will vote for T. J. Elam.—Adv.

A SOLDIER'S APPEAL

Grassy Creek, Ky.

July 25, 1921.

To the Voters of Morgan county:

I desire to speak a few words in behalf of Lynn B. Wells, the soldier candidate for County Attorney. As I am an ex-service man and have given twelve years of my life to this cause.

When we were in the service there was not a public speech made in this country but what said that when the war was over and boys came back—if they were permitted to get back—they would be honored by whatever they asked if they were competent for the positions. When the boys set foot on the ships that were to take them to France they really gave up all, as it then looked, to go to be slaughtered like sheep, and many were, as you well know.

Dear mothers, are you going to turn down this soldier boy who has a life as clean as that of any man who ever asked for office, for the kind of men his opponents seem to be?

They have gone over the county, quarrelling over the place, and saying hard things about each other, while Mr. Wells has gone alone in a smooth manner, treating his opponents like gentlemen. They have circulated fierce lies upon Mr. Wells and I feel it my duty, if possible, to let you know that there is not a more worthy man in the field. Outside his military experience you owe it to him, but you doubly owe it to him as he offered all and risked his life for you people here in Morgan county.

I ask you fathers and mothers, on behalf of the soldiers of this county, to rally to the support of Mr. Wells and show his opponents that you do not approve of their low down methods of trying to get into office by ridiculing their opponents, but that you appreciate a fair game.

Sincerely yours,

Lieut. OLLIE WHITT.

WHAT ELAM STANDS FOR.

The coming session of the General Assembly of Kentucky will be one that will make history in the State. There are problems for solution that will either put the State in the forefront with her sister states or will stop development for years to come.

There are problems of education that will have to be settled that mean much to the growth of our schools and the education of our children.

When elected and sworn in I shall endeavor to secure the amendment to the school law allowing the people to vote direct for the County Superintendent on a nonpartisan plan.

I favor the repeal of the law compelling a change of text books every few years.

I favor the three trustee system for each district, elected by the people and with power to employ the teacher.

I favor the taking of the roads over by the State and that the State build and maintain them, with Federal aid.

I favor a tonnage tax on coal and a tax on crude oil for the purpose of building and maintaining roads.

The tonnage tax on coal and the tax on oil will not make the price to the consumer greater, and will furnish an abundance of revenue to construct and maintain the roads.

The question of road building will have to be solved at the next session of the Legislature, and there must be some means of raising the revenue without adding taxes to the land and personal property of the citizens. That we must have hard surfaced roads is evident and we must devise the means for building them without burdening the people.

Yours very truly,

T. J. ELAM.

JOHN HENRY WILLIAMS

for

COUNTY ATTORNEY.

I desire to say to the voters that I greatly appreciate the interest that so many of you are taking in my race. I feel that you will continue to press this fight so that when the smoke of battle has cleared away you will find me as your nominee by a large majority. I think my race is in exceptionally good condition, and it seems that my nomination is sure.

I ask you to push my fight to the last minute and pay no attention to any reports that may be circulated for the purpose of hurting me. My opponents have had plenty of time to investigate my record and if they could have found one blot upon my character or proven satisfactorily that I was not the best qualified, then, I would quit the race.

I absolutely will not make any combination with either of my opponents for it is unlawful to do so and punishable by a large fine and disfranchisement. I am in the race clean handed to the finish and I desire that you brand all other reports false.

I am going to win, by your help, and when I have won I will work faithfully with all my mind, soul and body for a progressive and peaceful county.

Yours truly,

J. H. WILLIAMS.

ON THE HOME-STRETCH.

Dear Friends, my wife has been brought back from the hospital and is some better, though I am kept pretty close at home. I am getting to see a great many of you, and from all appearances it seems that I have the race for County Attorney won by a big plurality. People from all over the county tell me that they want a County Attorney who will do something, and the women are flocking to my support to hold up my hands in the prosecution of the liquor traffic.

The people know how assiduously I have labored to break up moonshining and bootlegging and are not going to turn a man whom they know will do his duty down for an untried.

I ask my friends to keep up the fight and to urge my friends to go out to the polls and vote for me and I will win by such a decisive vote that the other fellows will wonder that they ever thought they were in the race. The primary is drawing near and my information from all parts of the county shows that I have the race won by a tremendous plurality and all that is to do now is to keep up your work and see that my friends go out and vote.

I thank each and every one of you for the hearty support you have given me and promise to repay you by being the best County Attorney you have ever had and by a faithful attention to the duties of the office.

Yours very truly,

JOHN W. COFFEY.
